Asahel Dodge Family

aka/Assahel, Asahael, Ashel

Lee, Massachusetts

Is this Asahel Dodge related to Asahel Dodge who married Ann Walker?

They both were born in Western Massachusetts with Asahel who married Ann Walker being born in Lunnenberg and our Mystery Ashahel being born in Lee.

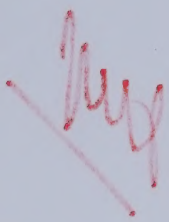

WHO was the father of our mystery Asahel Dodge?

Asahel Dodge was born probably in Lee, Massachusetts about 1756. He was one of the earliest settlers of Lee signing a petition to incoprorate the town of Lee in 1774. He was a blacksmith and a Revolutionary War soldier serving 1777 and 1780, Berkshire Company, under Maj. Rossiter, 1777, and Col. Rossiter, 1780. He was voted to be a fence viewer in 1778. He was still in Lee in 1790. About 1793, he and his family moved to Granville, NY. His cattle's ear marks were registered in Granville in 1795. The family was in Marcellus, New York in 1807.

About 1775, Asahel married Sarah N. Stanley who was b. 27 May 1754 in Tolland, Connecticut. They m arried in Massachusetts. They had 7 children:

Hannah Dodge b. 12 Jan 1776 in Lee, Berkshire County, Massachusetts
Seymour Dodge b. 28 Apr 1778 in Lee, Berkshire County, Massachusetts
Abraham Dodge Sr. b. 29 Sep 1780 in Lee, Berkshire County, Massachusetts
Heman Dodge b. 7 Nov 1782 in Lee, Berkshire County, Massachusetts
Asahel Dodge Jr. b 23 Nov 1784 in Lee, Berkshire County, Massachusetts
Sarah Dodge b 18 Mar 1787 in Lee, Berkshire County, Massachusetts
Samuel Stanley Dodge b 29 May 1792 in Lee, Berkshire County, Massachusetts

Asahel's son, Seymore married Sarah North who was b. abt. 1777. Seymore died Aug 1827 Bainbridge, Geauga, Ohio. He settled in Bainbridge township for a few years and then moved on. He was in Madison in 1823, but he had mail left in the Madison Post Office in 1826 and delinquent taxes in 1827.

The above two photos are both of Hiram M. Dodge who was a Pinkerton Railroad Detective, and his grandson, Earle Frederick Dodge at 2 months and 2 years. Hiram was the great grandson of Asahel Dodge of Lee, Massachusetts.

<1> p.190, The first 33 pages of this microfiche contain Howland family data which are duplicates of micro #18 of the Howland family.
<2> p.190, Samuel & Katherine were cousins who divorced when the children were young. There was some question as to whether her husband was the father of her children, and since she did not seem to want her children they were sent to New England on the Mayflower "with honest and religious people". Richard, the only child to survive the first winter, has the distinction of being the only Mayflower passenger thus far with proven royal descent through his mother. <MF5G 2:121; NEHGR 124:85>
<3> p.190, Richard's date of death has never been found. His gravestone in the Charter St. cemetery, Salem states he died ae 84 with no year given. Bowman photographed the gravestone in 1901 and returned in 1919 to find added the words, "Died 1692. A Mayflower Pilgrim". As he points out in a lengthy article (MD 22:74-85), Richard most certainly did not die in 1692. He was probably born 1614 - the year of his baptism, was alive 29 Mar. 1693/4 when he witnessed his daughter Susanna's bond and was called deceased in a deed dated 30 Apr. 1696. (I at first questioned the 1694 bond because he is not called her father; I wondered if it could have been her brother Richard who was alive on this date. However, Bowman states in MD that the signature is that of her father.) Although his gravestone says he was 84 years of age at death, it is unreliable. In 1684 Richard said he was "seventy or thereabouts" - which would place his birth at 1614 and death ae 84 at 1698. In 1690 he said he was 78, thus - b. 1612, death ae 84, at 1696. Bowman concludes in MD 22:78 that Richard probably died in 1695 or 1696 age 82 - not 84.
<4> p.190, TAG 40:77 states her name was Christian Hunter not Hunt. She is also called Hunter in Drake's Founders of New England where she is listed with the Richard Hollingsworth family who came to N.E. in 1635.
Plymouth Colony by Eugene Stratton:329 notes that he may be the Richard More of Salem who married in England 23 Oct. 1645, Elizabeth Woolne of Limehouse, Middlesex co., while still married to Christian.
<5> p.190, In a deed dated 5 May 1675, Richard More Senior of Salem mentions his "four children", viz: Caleb, Richard, Susanna and Christian. <Essex Co.Deeds 4:114,300>
<6> p.190, Bowman states she was the daughter of Richard Hollingsworth, probably because of two depositions in which More calls Hollingsworth his father-in-law. <Essex Co.Deeds 49:75,138> However, researchers have not found a daughter Jane in his family and feel More was referring to a relationship to his first wife Christian who came to N.E. with the Hollingsworth family.(See <7>) The source for Jane's death is "Marriages, Births and Deaths for the County of Essex, 1638-1701".
<7> p.190, Richard (ae 40), wife Suzan (ae 30) and their four children were transported to N.E. aboard the ship "Blessing", 13 July 1635. Included in their list were Christian Hunter (ae 20), Elizabeth Hunter (ae 18), Thomas Hunter (ae 14) and William Hunter (ae 11). <Founders of New England by Samuel Drake. repr. 1969. GPC>
